

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXI.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, MAY 2, 1893.

NO. 18

DANVILLE.

—Dr. Fayette Dunlap was called to Lebanon on professional business Saturday.

—Annie, the 28-year-old daughter of Thomas Doran, died Friday of consumption and was buried Saturday.

—Mary Embry was sent to the workhouse Monday for 15 days for assaulting Bob Jones. Mary is a Stanford Importation and a sure enough tough one.

—The newly elected officers of Ryan Commandery No. 17, Knights Templar, are Alex Tribble, Commander; Frank Glicher, Generalissimo; W. B. Millburn, Captain General; J. M. Worrall, Prelate; T. F. Durham, Senior Warden; M. F. Hulet, Junior Warden; J. H. Thomas, Treasurer; H. G. Sandifer, Recorder; W. J. Davis, Standard-bearer; J. W. Flowers, Sword-bearer; C. R. McDowell, Warden; Fred Harris Sentinel.

—Circuit court since Thursday at noon: John Gresham's adm't vs. L. & N. R. C., peremptory instructions for defendant. In this case John Gresham, a small boy, was killed by the road at Junction City. For burning his house through sparks from a locomotive R. H. C. Mitchell obtained $3,175 from the L. & road. The case will go to the court of appeals. J. M. Meyer, &c., vs. Chas. H. McDowell's adm'r, to break said McDowell's will, continued; Jas. H. Brand vs. Danville and Perryville Turnpike Co., peremptory instruction in favor of def't. Plaintiff will go to the court of appeals. Kate Lee, conspiracy to commit arson, trial in progress Monday at noon.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—The case against James Barnard, who was accused of beating up and robbing Pat Casey, has been reversed by the court of appeals. Barnard was convicted at the last circuit court and given one year in the penitentiary.

—Henry Masterson, who was indicted several years ago for attempting to rob a train at East Bernstadt, was captured and brought here Friday by Col. Bill Stringer, who has been gone from here some time his own self.

—The miners on the L. & N. south of and including Almonton had some misunderstanding with the operators as to the rate for the next twelve months last week, but the question was settled to the satisfaction of the operators and outsiders.

—Mr. A. R. Dyche, editor of the Echo, had the misfortune to break his steam press Thursday, when about two-thirds of his edition had been run off. He will have to ship almost the whole of his cylinder press to Cincinnati for repairs. The freight alone on it will cost him over $70 and it will be about four weeks before the paper can come out, as usual. This is a misfortune both to the public and the editor, which the writer regrets. Mr. Dyche is a good man any way, if it wasn't for his unreasonable ideas about politics.

Here are the names of some of the Statesmen that Mr. Cleveland has found and given office:

Hon. Hoke Smith, Georgia.

Hon. Dink Betts, Georgia.

Hon. Posey Ball, of Kentucky.

Hon. Joshua Jump, Terre Haute, Ind.

Hon. Nash Burnside, Florida.

Hon. Phank Rickey, Tennessee.

Hon. Ted Beazley, Arkansas.

Hon. Pod Dismuke, Georgia.

Hon. Budd Dodds, North Carolina.

Hon. Potsdam Sams, Louisiana.

Hon. Rhine Opitz, Ohio.

Hon. Atsalom Milkweed, East Tennessee.

Hon. Clark Button, Mississippi.

ARE YOU GOING?—If so get posted ahead and go the best way. The World's Fair opens May 1, and from the South and Southern Ohio, the route via C. H. & D. offers the most advantages both in comfort and points of interest. The C. H. & D. in connection with the Monon is the only line running Pullman vestibuled trains with dining-cars between Cincinnati and Chicago. The unequalled service of this route has earned for it the title of the "World's Fair Route." Purchase tickets via the C. H. & D. For rates, and full information call on or address any C. H. & D. agent or E. O. McCormick, G. F. & T. Agt., "World's Fair Route," 200 W. 4th Street, Cincinnati, O. Send 20 cents in stamps to the latter address and receive a panoramic view, five feet long, of Chicago and the World's Fair, showing relative heights of buildings, &c.

A Leader.

Since its first introduction, Electric Bitters has gained rapidly in popular favor until now. It is clearly in the lead among pure medical tonics and alternatives—containing nothing which can be used as a purgative or cathartic. It is recognized as the best and purest medicine for all ailments of the Stomach, Liver and Kidneys. It will cure and drive Malaria from the system. Satisfaction guaranteed. Price only 50 cents per bottle. Sold by A. R. Peavy, Druggist.

The World's Fair Buildings cover a ground space of 240 acres.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Alfred Burnside, an old and highly respected colored man, died Saturday morning and was buried Sunday.

—Catholic services were held at the court-house Sunday morning. A large number of strangers attended.

—The fishing party that went to the Cumberland river has returned and reports the sport as exceedingly fine.

—The meetings to commence at the Presbyterian church Wednesday will be held twice daily, viz: at 3 o'clock and 7:45 p. m.

—The application of J. A. Royston for druggist's license has been withdrawn, as his "pill-roller" failed to produce the necessary certificate.

—About all one hears discussed on our streets now is the saloon question. The coming fight promises to be one of the hottest ever held in Garrard.

—Casey Owlesay, of Centre College, was over Saturday and Sunday to see his mother. Mr. C. C. Stormes continues to improve and will soon be out.

—A new crossing is being laid between the Miller Hotel and McRoberts' store. We understand that when the timber, etc., being used on the new buildings is removed, the public square will be covered with new rock. It certainly needs it.

—The members of the band feel highly complimented by the presence of six handsome couples from our neighboring town of Stanford on the evening of their concert. Col. Walton, editor of the INTERIOR JOURNAL, was among the number and received quite an ovation at the conclusion of the performance.

—Wool.—I want to buy 100,000 lbs. or more of wool. Will pay highest market price. A. T. Nunnelley.

—The fastest three trotters that get of any one size are Sunol 2:08½, Palo Alto 2:05½ and Arion 2:10½, all by Electioneer.

—Frank Medlin, of Harrisburg, Ill., has a cow that has just given birth to 15 well developed calves. Thirteen of them are still alive.

—At Charles Bailey's sale of saddles in New York, 30 head brought $21,455—an average of $701.50. They were all Kentucky horses.

—The Advocate says that W. L. Caldwell & Co. will exhibit their magnificent two-year-old jack at the World's Fair, for which they have refused $1,500.

—The Record-Homestead says that W. O. Owlesay has refused $350 for a filly colt recently dropped. It is by Red Squirrel and out of a Hurst's Vermont mare.

—Wool WANTED.—Bring me your wool and get the highest market price. I want it and will buy it if you will give me an opportunity. Wm. Moreland, Stanford, Ky.

—Farmers whose potatoes have not been roteted by the wet, cold weather, because they have none planted, belong to the ancient society of "I told you so."

—The apple crop of northwest Missouri and northeastern Kansas will be almost total failure, ice froze in that vicinity Thursday night to a thickness of nearly half an inch and great damage was done to the apple and peach trees which were already in bloom.

—The Elizabethtown News says that peaches, apples and pears passed through the season without being the least bit damaged, and of these varieties of fruit on oil Midkraugh's Hill there could hardly be found a bitten bud. The growers are very jubilant, as they think the danger period is passed, and they are confidently predicting another crop equal if not larger than that of 1888, which was the largest ever grown in this section.

—The folding bed came near getting in its work again the other night, with Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Tribble, of Richmond, as the victims. While they were sleeping in one of those snapping contrivances it closed on them. Mr. Tribble managed to extricate herself, but she had to call for help to get Mr. Tribble out of the jaws of the snapper.

—Isidore Bonheur, brother to the famous artist, Rosa Bonheur, has designed and executed a handsome bronze statue of French trotter, which will be offered for the finest collection of French trotters shown by one exhibitor at the Columbian.

—The Liberty Bell, now at the World's Fair, was in use from 1753 to 1853, just a hundred years, when it was cracked while being tolled on the occasion of the death of Chief Justice Marshall.

—From 1865 to 1802, a period of 27 years, the public debt was reduced from $2,807,383,937.55, an almost inconceivably large sum, to $931,710,346. This was at a rate of more than $62,000,000 a year.

—Mrs. Braman, aged 102, died at Georgetown, Mass., recently. The church placed 102 roses on her coffin and the public school 102 pinks. Her life had been one of great usefulness.

BARBOURVILLE.

—As Fountain Fox Bobbitt has gone home, I will drop the "old reliable" another letter.

—There is one more week of circuit court here yet, but the docket is crowded so with criminal business that it will be difficult to get any civil business heard at all.

—Mr. T. J. Kellems, of Roost, Bell county, was in town Sunday. Hal Corbett and Charley Metcalf, of Pineville, were down attending court last week. Several visiting attorneys were here last attending the McLaughlin case.

—Since my last letter in Tuesday's paper of last week two more men have been sentenced to the penitentiary.

They are J. M. E. Baker, for the murder of his uncle, Dan Baker, near Flat Lick, this county, almost three years ago, and Sam McHargue, for killing W. H. Sadler, at Corbin in February, '92.

Baker was tried in Judge Boyd's court here last year and was sentenced for life, but his attorney, Col. D. K. Rawlings, had the decision reversed in the court of appeals and a new trial granted; this time he was sentenced for only two years.

McHargue was given 15 years, but it is thought he will get a new trial. He is quite a young man and had a good character and there is considerable sympathy for him.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—Wool.—I want to buy 100,000 lbs. or more of wool. Will pay highest market price. A. T. Nunnelley.

—The fastest three trotters that get of any one size are Sunol 2:08½, Palo Alto 2:05½ and Arion 2:10½, all by Electioneer.

—Frank Medlin, of Harrisburg, Ill., has a cow that has just given birth to 15 well developed calves. Thirteen of them are still alive.

—At Charles Bailey's sale of saddles in New York, 30 head brought $21,455—an average of $701.50. They were all Kentucky horses.

—The Advocate says that W. L. Caldwell & Co. will exhibit their magnificent two-year-old jack at the World's Fair, for which they have refused $1,500.

—The Record-Homestead says that W. O. Owlesay has refused $350 for a filly colt recently dropped. It is by Red Squirrel and out of a Hurst's Vermont mare.

—Wool WANTED.—Bring me your wool and get the highest market price. I want it and will buy it if you will give me an opportunity. Wm. Moreland, Stanford, Ky.

—The Woodford Sun notes sales of several hundred lambs at 6c for June, 5½c for July and 5c for August. J. A. Cohen shipped a car load of hogs to Cincinnati, which cost him 6c.

—Linger, Elmer Bailey's entry in the Kentucky Derby, won the distillers' stake at Lexington Saturday in 1:58. The talent caught it severely in the neck, as he sold very low in the pools.

—A well-posted Madison county stock dealer tells the Register that hogs will be worth 10 cents by feeding time next fall and that cattle will bring more than any previous year for a long while.

—Capt. T. A. Elkin has received from E. Woodall, of Almonton, two richly bred mares to be bred to his stallion. The growers are very jubilant, as they think the danger period is past, and they are confidently predicting another crop equal if not larger than that of 1888, which was the largest ever grown in this section.

—Beazley Bros. & Hayes have contracted with Nelson Rowland, the great saddle horse man, of Lexington, to handle their splendid saddle stallion, Silver Tip. Mr. Rowland will take him in hand June 1 and will himself exhibit him at our fair, the Danville fair and other fairs in this section.

—Mr. J. H. Miller returned Saturday from a four-months' stay in Irwin and Ware county, Ga., whence he went with mules. He sold a car load for Hon. J. S. Owlesay, Sr., at $92; a car for S. H. Shanks at $100 and a car that he bought at $164, 96 in all. Trade he says was fair all the time he was there.

—Wm. Moreland bought of P. C. Sandridge a car load of hogs for 1 to July 15 delivery at 6c; of Hiram Johnson 100 stock ewes for August delivery at $3.50; of Emmett McCormack a bunch of 1,000-pound cattle at 3½c. He sold to J. S. Owlesay, Sr., a lot of 1,300-pound cattle at 4c and to E. W. Lee, of Boyle, a bunch of 110-pound sheep at 6c.

—Flying Jib, 2:05½, is the fastest pacer descended from Alexander's Abdallah in the direct male line; Roy Wilkes, 2:07½, the fastest from George Wilkes; St. Patrick, 2:14½; the fastest from Volunteer; Wilkie Russell, 2:15, the fastest from Woodford Mambrino; Willard M., 2:14, the fastest from Mambrino Patchen; Flying Tide, 2:14½, and Mary Chimes, 2:14½, the fastest from Electioneer.

—From 1865 to 1802, a period of 27 years, the public debt was reduced from $2,807,383,937.55, an almost inconceivably large sum, to $931,710,346. This was at a rate of more than $62,000,000 a year.

—Mrs. Braman, aged 102, died at Georgetown, Mass., recently. The church placed 102 roses on her coffin and the public school 102 pinks. Her life had been one of great usefulness.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—The Southern Baptist Convention, which meets in Nashville May 12, represents a membership of 2,000,000 souls.

—Rev. A. V. Sizemore is quite sick and was unable to fill his appointments at the Baptist church and at Mt. Xenia Sunday.

—Rev. Ben Helm left Saturday for Hazel Green to assist Rev. James M. Little in a protracted meeting. He will be absent several weeks.

—On a contract of $2,300 to reform the town of Bowling Green, Sam Jones scored 2,500 converts. This is less than $1 a head, the cheapest on record.—Com. Gaz.

—Mr. A. C. Sine was elected a delegate at the Transylvania Presbytery recently in session at Burnside to the General Assembly which will convene at Macon, Ga., on May 18.

—Sunrise prayer meetings have been inaugurated in Lexington by Dr. Stuckey but they are not very popular. Most people prefer to do their praying at night and their sleeping in the morning.

—A crank preacher at Oakdale, Tenn., was stopped in the middle of a disgusting harangue and given five minutes to shake the dust of the town from his feet. He was abasement with several minutes to spare.

—The Methodist Episcopal Church (South) Board of Extension has made assessments on the various conferences to the amount of $100,000 for use by the board next year. The Kentucky Conference is assessed $2,880 and the Louisville $1,200.

—A very dastardly deed was perpetrated near Mayesville. As Rev. T. B. Cook and wife were returning to town late at night two persons rode up to their buggy and threw two buckets of filth on them and left without being recognized. Mr. Cook is a Methodist preacher and is well-known here.

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - MAY 2, 1893

W. P. WALTON.

EIGHT : PAGES.
EVERY FRIDAY.

Mrs. LOLLA SMALL JACKSON, daughter of Sam Small, the editor and ex-evangelist, has created a sensation at Knoxville by suing a gambling firm to recover $10,000 her husband had dropped with it. Under the laws of the State she can do so, if she is able to produce the proper proof. Jackson is a son of the late president of the E. T. V. & G., who left him a large fortune. Most young men do not realize the value of money that comes to them so easily and young Jackson soon developed into a sporting character and was known as a "high roller." The old adage that a fool and his money is soon parted was exemplified in his case and he had soon, in the language of the sports, "dumped" $40,000. During the time he was playing so high he met Miss Small, under peculiar circumstances. He had an engagement with a young lady to go driving, but was so intoxicated when he went for her in his rig that she refused to accompany him. Miss Small, who was present, said she would go it introduced. The introduction was given, Jackson made love to her at once and in a few days they were married. He did not, of course, prove a model husband and the truth of another adage was shown. She has made her bed hard and she must lie hard. We feel the sincerest compassion for a woman who innocently becomes the wife of that most detestable of creatures—a drunkard—but when a girl enters such a union with a full knowledge of what she is doing there can be but little sympathy for her. This one has sown the wind. Henceforth she will reap the whirlwind.

The Louisville Times does not mince its words, but speaks right out in meeting "charging, currente lingua, that Mr. J. Sel Miller, clerk of the city court, has been paid by the gamblers sums of money for which the only consideration was immunity from the pains and penalties the law prescribes for the offense of gambling. If this be libelous, the party libeled knows his remedy." Up to the hour of going to press, however, we had not heard of Mr. Miller rushing frantically around demanding an investigation. In fact the gallant Sel's silence in the matter is touchingly eloquent. He evidently knows when it is best to saw wood and say nothing, but if the courts do their duty his official rotteness will be brought to the light it deserves and his punishment fixed accordingly.

THERE have been numerous and sundry imitators of Jack the Ripper, Jack the Hugger and others, but Saginaw, Mich., is the first place to develop a veritable Kate the Kisser. A young woman, said to be a vision of loveliness, darted out of dark corners and kisses young men as they pass, whether they want to or not. They usually want to, though, and the population of Saginaw is being daily increased by young men who long to be encircled in the lovely arms and feel the sweet imprint of the lips of the mysterious but lovely creature.

It does not fail to the lot of many men to be honored with office of important character as long as Mr. Senator Morrill, of Vermont. He has just celebrated his 83d birthday and is still enjoying mental and physical vigor to an unusual degree. Mr. Morrill was elected to Congress in 1855 and since then has held a seat in the Lower or Upper House continuously. If he lives to complete his present term he will have served 30 years in the highest law making body in the world, the United States Senate.

DR. JOHN D. WOODS, member of the Legislature from Warren county, is no hog, neither does he want the earth. His experience for the last 18 months at Frankfort has cured him of further desire to be a law-maker and he has decided not to stand for re-election. The doctor is deservedly popular everywhere, is held in high esteem at home and could no doubt succeed himself, but the average per diem drawer at Frankfort has enjoyed the last pull at the flesh-pots of office he will ever have.

MN. HOWE SMITH, secretary of the interior, will become as famous as Mr. Cleveland for aphorisms, if he keeps on. He made the wise remark the other day that "public offices should be created and conducted exclusively for the benefit of those who do not fill them." This is good enough to go alongside with "Public Office is a Public Trust," and the other maxims that Grover has laid down.

MR. GEORGE A. JONES formerly city editor of the Courier-Journal, and an attaché of the Louisville press since the war, in which he fought bravely for the Union, was elected junior vice-commander of the Kentucky Department of the G. A. R. The body honored itself in honoring such a man.

Louisville voted to subscribe a million dollars in 4 per cent. bonds for the State Capital.

The great World's Fair opened yesterday with much eclat. President Cleveland and party were on hand and after a speech from him and others he touched a button and electricity and steam did the rest. The great show is now in full blast, though exhibits will be added all along. Thousands of fakirs are already on hand and suckers will be played for all they are worth. The hotels seem to have organized into a body of bilks, judging from the circulars they are sending out. When you go, as everybody will, don't forget to keep your weather eye skinned and your hand on your pocket-book. There will be smooth and taking individuals there that will be able to deceive the very elect. Forewarned is forearmed. Keep cool and under no circumstances allow yourself to get rattled.

According to the Louisville Critic, Senator Lindsay is playing fast and loose with the applicants for surveyor. He endorsed Col. Welch; Spalding, of Marion, claims that he promised to support him and now the rumor is published that he will see that Col. J. Stoddard Johnston is appointed, if a certain man will release him. If any or all of this be true, the Senator is more of a vacillating character than we think he is and needs to stiffen his spinal column with crinoline or something of the sort.

After wrestling all day Saturday with the bill to prohibit Italians and others from taking bears along the highways of the grand old Commonwealth, and failing to pass it, the Kentucky Legislature was not too fatigued to accept an invitation to attend the Lexington races to-day in a body. When they go up and invest that $5 a day they haven't earned, it looks like a charge of obtaining money under false pretense would lie against them.

CARTOONIST KERR, of the Louisville Commercial, one of the most gifted men in the business, is making life unpleasant for Emmett Logen, of the Times, and Logen tries to get even with him by printing his name Cur. The cartoonist has gotten the massive brow and the no less massive feet of the distinguished editor down to a fine point, but the face and features are not up to Mr. Kerr's usual correctness.

WHAT fools these mortals be, to be sure. It is silly enough for the Irish to kiss the blarney-stone, but it is the height of blooming idiocy for sensible Americans to get so enthusiastic and patriotic as to press their lips to the old Liberty Bell, as many of them did at Chicago on its arrival.

MRS. POTTER PALMER drove a golden nail into the women's building at Chicago Saturday to signalize its completion. The fact that she did so without mashing her fingers goes to show that she is a remarkable woman in more ways than for beauty and sense.

A NUMBER of his friends have suggested to Harvey Helm, Esq., that he become a candidate for the Legislature and he is thinking favorably of doing so. He is most worthy and capable and the Interior Journal will be glad to see his ambition gratified.

MR. CLEVELAND jammed his head against the top of the carriage he was entering at New York, causing the blood to flow freely, but as it is pretty hard it did not hurt him much, and he is too sensible to let anything make him have the big head.

THE president is a bigger attraction at Chicago than the Fair. Nearly the whole of the vast crowd drawn to the opening yesterday came to see the man of destiny. And all who saw him saw a man in every sense of the term.

HARRY McCREIGHT has retired from the Shelbyville Sentinel, having sold his interest to Wm. A. Wallwork, who will with its original owner, Mr. P. C. Cozine, run it on its former high standard.

Legislative.

—The Senate passed the Louisville charter over the Governor's veto to 24 to 8.

NEWSY NOTES.

—The Second National Bank of Columbia, Tenn., has failed.

—There are 58 applicants for the five collectorships in Kentucky.

—Philip D. Armour, the Chicago meat packer, employs over 16,000 men and boys.

—Another hotel manager at Middletown has failed—J. T. McLane, of the Tyler House.

—In the Louisville District 6,000,000 gallons of whisky has been made in the last two months.

—G. W. McTilien, a painter, was instantly killed in Louisville by coming in contact with a live wire.

—The Nicholasville Journal says that we were mistaken. There is no scandal there either on hand or brewing.

—A colored girl was licensed to practice medicine at Richmond, Va. She is the first woman to secure such license in the State.

—Jim Burke and Sam Massey, both colored, were hanged at Bonham, Tex. Between 10,000 and 15,000 people witnessed the double execution.

—Pulaski county has bought a poor house farm of 187 acres on the Mt. Vernon road two miles from Somerset for $3,500.

—Dun's trade review notes a favorable effect on business generally by President Cleveland's decision in monetary matters.

—Edwin Booth did not die when we said he would, but yesterday's dispatches were to the effect that he could live but a few hours.

—Clifford Ryan, of Springfield, Ohio, died from excessive cigarette smoking. The day before he took sick he smoked 78 without stopping.

—Annie Burr was awarded $7,500 damages against Dr. J. G. Stivers and his wife for cruelties practiced upon the child in his employ.

—President Cleveland is alleged to have said that he will not call the extra session of Congress till some time between Sept. 1 and 15.

—Mrs. Anna Potter spent $9,000 on her campaign for the mayoralty of Kansas City, and received 26 votes, of which 5 were cast by women.

—The members of the Rhode Island Legislature get but a dollar a day during service. They do not stay in session long, it is needless to add.

—Rate cutting to the World's Fair has begun by both Eastern and Western roads and all roads seem anxious to smash all rate agreements.

—Little George Koehler, of Cincinnati, struck a match to a can containing about ten pounds of powder. Even his parents did not know him afterwards.

—The number of persons known to have been killed by the cyclone in Oklahoma Territory Tuesday night exceeds 75, while over 200 others were injured.

—George Henry, who was charged with being implicated in the Oliver tragedy, has proved an alibi, and Alex Thomasson, also accused, has been dismissed.

—The Standard Oil Co. has at last secured control of the Manhattan Oil Co., the only rival the Standard ever had. The property transferred is valued at $15,000,000.

—The Mississippi river has reached a stage at St. Louis that threatens a disastrous flood. A break occurred in a levee on the Illinois side, above the city, flooding the farms and part of the village of Brooklyn.

—The United States Government clears $4,000,000 a year profit on the New York post office. Chicago comes next with an annual profit of $2,500,000 and then Boston and Philadelphia with $1,500,000 each.

—Mrs. L. E. Finney, of Huntsville, Ark., has distinguished herself by giving birth to five girls within 11 months. Last May she became the mother of two and a few days ago she presented her husband with triplets.

—Prof. James J. White, for over 30 years professor of Greek at Washington and Lee University, and widely known as an educator and classical scholar of high attainments, died Saturday at his home in Lexington, Va.

—A brakeman forced two negro tramps to jump from an L. & N. train, near Lebanon Junction, while it was running and they fell under the wheels. Both were badly injured, one having his legs and an arm cut off.

—Happy Medium was 22 years old when he sired Nancy Banks, 204, and Deceive 21 when he sired Mascot, 204. Joe Bassett was two years old when he sired Johnstone, 204, and Tom Hal 21 when he got Hal Point, 204.

—Three negroes, suspected of robbery, were strung up by a vigilance committee near Leitchfield, until one confessed that one of the other two committed the robbery and divided the proceeds with him. The three were then placed in jail.

—Near Greenville, Tenn., three young men, two brothers and a cousin, were drowned by the capsizing of a new skiff they were giving a trial. Two could have escaped, but sacrificed their lives in attempting to save the third.

—The town of Cisco, Texas, was nearly entirely destroyed by a cyclone Saturday. Twenty-one dead bodies were taken from the ruins and over 100 were injured. Four-fifths of the people are without homes and help is needed.

—The Holcomb law, which takes effect in Ohio July 1, provides that every retailer of cigarettes in that State shall pay a tax of $100 per annum and every wholesale dealer a tax of $300 per annum, both collectable at the same time with the real estate taxes.

—A curiosity of journalism is established on the top of Mt. Washington, the highest peak of New England, where an enterprising printer has built an office, from which he periodically issues a newspaper named, with much truth, Among the Clouds.

—Probably the largest tombstone in the world is that of the late Henry Scerrett, of Upson county, Ga. Several years before Mr. Scerrett's death he selected a monster boulder, a miniature mountain of granite, 100 feet by 250 in dimensions, and when he died this huge tombstone was placed over his grave.

—Eighteen months ago Tom Gay left his wife and children at Tiffin, O., without stating his intentions. He has just returned and his only excuse for his absence is that he hadn't finished "sowing wild oats," but is now ready to take care of his family. The true wife received him with open arms.

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., . . . MAY 2, 1893

E. C. WALTON, Bus. Manager

PERSONAL POINTS.

Mrs ALICE HENDRICKS went to Louisville Saturday.

R. M. JACKSON, Esq., of London, was in town Sunday.

Miss SADIE COOK, of Hustonville, is the guest of her sisters here.

Mrs GEORGE BROADBENT, of Madison, is visiting her sister, Mrs R. H. Dankes.

A. D. Root, Jr., who is now located at Dallas, Texas, is visiting his parents here.

Mrs JOE COFFEY and her two boys went up to Dillon Saturday to see Mrs. W. B. Dillon.

A LITTLE SON of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Stephens has been very sick with a rheumatism in his head.

Mrs A. E. GIBBONS and Master Marrs spent a few days with Mrs. J. M. Shobold and other friends.

Miss EDITH ADAMS, of Danville, and Alice Richardson, of Somerset, are visiting Miss Mattie Vandever.

Mr. J. C. PETERS, of St. Joe, Mo., who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. J. H. Tucker, returned home Friday.

Miss LATRA LOGAS CARTER, of Hamilton College, spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Carter.

Mr. AND MRS. ZAN DUDDELLAR, of Louisville, returned home yesterday after a visit to Col. W. H. Dudderar's family.

Mr. ARNOLD STEINREGER received a telegram that his mother was dead and left Saturday night for her late home in Switzerland.

Mr. M. F. HULER, of the K. C., with headquarters at Covington, is spending a few days with his many friends here at Rowland.

Mrs HENRY PHILIPS had the misfortune to step on a rusty nail Saturday. It pierced deeply into her foot, causing her much suffering.

Mr. B. N. ROLLIN, master of trains, has rented Mr. J. M. Bruce's green house on lower Main and will move his family to it this week.

R. C. ENGLEMAN, Jr., has taken a position with J. P. Crow, at McKinney, and will handle the lines over some of his fast trotters this year.

Messrs SUMMER Boughs and James Davis, of Danville, were here Sunday and assisted in organizing the Young Men's Christian Association.

Miss SALLY ELLIS, who has been running a millinery at Jellico, returned home yesterday with Miss Sallie Cook, who has been on a visit to her.

Mr. T. J. BOENKY, the efficient mail messenger on this division, has resigned to accept a paying position in Indianapolis, which place was the home of his wife.

Col. J. E. BROWN, who has been in Bristol, Tenn., for several months, has returned and is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Samuel M. Owens and Miss Glenn Bibb.

Mr. J. J. GIBSON and wife, of Pineville, with their daughter, Miss Annie, and Miss Dora Bingham, returned from a two-months stay at Tampa, Fla., Friday, where they went for the benefit of Miss Annie's health, which was much improved.

Mrs. L. S. LOGAN returned Saturday from Louisville, where she has for several months been under the treatment of Dr. L. S. McMurtry. We are glad to state that she is very much improved in health. She is now at Mr. D. F. Logan's in this county.

Mr. J. C. BRYANT orders his paper changed from Lexington to Ashland, where he has located and opened a wholesale liquor house, in addition to taking charge of the Ashland Land Co.'s property. His friends here wish him success in his new field.

AMONG the many who came from a distance to attend the Princess entertainment were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Holland, Mrs. Alice Newland and Misses Maggie and Eva Buchanan, Minnie Myers, Leah Stegar and Mollie Brooks, Crab Orchard, Capt. T. A. Elkin and Misses Carrie Curry, Mattie Elkin and May Hughes, Lancaster, Tilden Cook and several others, Hustonville, besides many from Danville and elsewhere.

CITY AND VICINITY.

PLANTS FOR SALE.—Tomatoes and cabbage. O. J. Newland.

SELF-ADJUSTING screen windows and doors at Wearne & Co's.

It is horse and horse now, Bro. Smith. Honors are even. Let us have peace.

FOR RENT.—Our large new house on Lower Main. Apply to Eph Pennington, Stanford.

A. B. BASTIN has moved his saw mill to Martensburg, Rockcastle county. We take pleasure in commanding Mr. Bastin to the good people of that vicinity.

The advance sale of seats for the New York Stars last evening was the largest for years and the prospects were that notwithstanding the weather, there would be a good crowd.

WHILE coupling cars in the Lexington yards Saturday night Bell Tapp, a brakeman from Rowland, had his left hand fearfully mashed and it is feared that amputation will be necessary.

JIM MIDDLETON will break rock for the benefit of the town for the next five days, Judge Carson having assessed him $5 for being drunk and disorderly and his not having the wherewithal to liquidate.

LADIES.—As agent for the Lexington Steam Laundry I am prepared to laundry comforts or quilts at 35 cents; curtains, ordinary size, 50 cents; large size, 75 cents. Please bring washing in on Mondays. Jessie J. Thompson.

Just received a lot of the best carriage paints, varnishes and trimming material. All work guaranteed and promptly attended to. Give me a call. Shop over William Daugherty's blacksmith shop on Main street. John B. DeNardi.

A REPORTER of the INTERIOR JOURNAL, with delightful company, attended the 2nd concert of the Lancaster band at the court-house there Friday night and enjoyed it exceedingly. The boys play finely and easily discount ours, though the latter have not had as much practice.

"And the rain, it rains every day." The April showers have been a little too promiscuous and when they linger into May, as they were doing yesterday, they begin to create a feeling that there can be even too much of a good thing. The signal service promises a let up to day, though, the dispatch reading "Fair, cold Tuesday."

On account of the rain Saturday the proposed race between Will Hayes' mare, A. E. Handler's roadster and Tom Yeager's Clara W. did not come off, but was postponed till next Saturday afternoon.

W. R. & E. C. Gaines have entered a horse and Joe Embry and Carroll Shanks will more than likely put in the speedy roadster belonging to the Gentry Bros.

The residence of Mr. J. M. Cook, of Hustonville, caught fire Friday and for a while it looked as if it would be consumed. A defective flue was the origin. This is the third time within a couple of years this house has caught fire and each time Misses Sallie and Jessie Cook have proven themselves most excellent fire fighters. They were both on the roof the last time when the neighbors arrived to lend a helping hand.

SERVED HIM RIGHT.—The Advocate says that Al Brackett, a would-be funny man, called the foreman of the grand jury to the door and said "Loan me 50 cents, Humphrey, I want to buy a half-pint." The sheriff was instructed to take Mr. Brackett before Judge Sauley and explain the case to his honor. The Judge ordered Mr. Brackett to jail for twenty-four hours for contempt of court. This was not so funny.

OUR MR. HUGHES has just returned from the cities with the finest and prettiest line of summer dress goods in wash fabrics of every new weave. In cotton and wool challies, Scotch embroidered, Swiss, Scotch lawns, light shades in all wool goods and black dress goods of every weave. China silks, new shades of velvet, Bolero jackets, Zouave jackets, Spring Wraps and everything new and desirable in shoes, clothing, &c. Don't fail to examine before buying. Hughes & Tate.

For the benefit of those who have claims against employees of the Cincinnati Southern Railway, we reproduce an order of the U. S. Court with reference to garnishments: "It is directed, that said Receiver do not in any case hereafter appear to or answer any garnishment against any of his employes but that all claims against employes be presented to the said Commissioner hereinbefore appointed, and that upon his notice of such claim the said receiver shall forthwith notify said employe and shall withhold from said employe from money otherwise due, a sufficient amount to satisfy said claim, and that upon order of the said Commissioner the same shall be paid either to the said employe or to the said claimant, as said Commissioner may direct and adjudge." All persons who may have claims against the said Receiver, growing out of his operation of the road, and all persons who may have claims against any employe of the Receiver which should be paid out of the wages of such employe, are notified to transmit the same by mail to Richard P. Ernst, 28th Chamber of Commerce Building, Cincinnati, Ohio.

PLANTS FOR SALE.—Tomatoes and cabbage. O. J. Newland.

SELF-ADJUSTING screen windows and doors at Wearne & Co's.

It is horse and horse now, Bro. Smith. Honors are even. Let us have peace.

FOR RENT.—Our large new house on Lower Main. Apply to Eph Pennington, Stanford.

FIVE different sizes Leonard ice chests. Will save you 200 per cent. of your ice bill. W. H. Wearne & Co.

THE commencement exercises of the Millersburg Female College begin May 27th and close on the 31st.

CAMPBELL & AUSTIN, the new firm of painters, are beautifying Walton's Opera House and labeling it with three-foot letters so it won't get lost.

MORE rain fell in April than in the same month for years, the precipitation being 7.63 inches. The mean temperature was 57.3°, which is below the normal.

PHOEBE HICKS says that May will be another mean month, with frosts, storms, &c., to vex and annoy those who are anxious to live long enough to see another pretty day.

MR. C. D. POWELL, the wide awake merchant who came here from Jackson, closed his first year's business here Saturday and says he sold $25,000 worth of goods, every dollar cash.

CRAIG MARTIN and Tom Hale were tried yesterday before Judge Varnon for misbehaving at the Neal's Creek schoolhouse while preaching was going on. The former was acquitted and the latter was fined $10.

DEPOSED.—A dispatch from Lexington says J. H. Swango, of Centre College, the convicted plagiarist, was deposed from his throne as the king of the Kentucky orators. A meeting of the Kentucky Inter-collegiate Oratorical Association was held there Saturday and that action was decided on. Swango was requested to return the medal that was awarded him at the big oratorical contest held last month.

THE FOUNTAIN.—The committee has decided to accept the suggestion of the INTERIOR JOURNAL as to the location of the fountain on Court Square, and Wm. Moore, of the Lexington Plumbing Co., from whom it was bought, has arrived to put it up. It will stand a few feet up the walk in front of the Court-House. The present steps will be removed and one on each side of the fountain will be erected, with pavement all around. The work will go rapidly ahead and before the end of the week the sparkling spray will be sent heavenward. It will not only be an ornament, but furnish a delightful place around which to sit during the hot afternoons that are fast approaching.

THE PRINCESS.—Walton's Opera House was crowded Thursday night to witness the rendition of Tennyson's charming little love story, The Princess, by the V. A. M. Society of Stanford Female College, under the capable direction of Miss Olivia W. Summers, art and elocution teacher, and it was the unanimous verdict that the young ladies acquitted themselves most gratifyingly. Miss Essie Burch sustained the role of Prince in her usually excellent manner, while Miss Laura McAnally was even a more charming little Princess than the one she portrayed. The love scene in the last act in which osculation and embraces played a leading part, showed that they are as fair in all the accomplishments. Miss Flora Ballou is a natural actress and as Lady Blanche won additional encomiums. Miss Jennie Summers was a very lovely Lady Payche; Miss Susan Vaughan as King Gama both looked and acted her part well; Miss Mary Bruce made a capital Florian; Miss Mattie Hopper was very amusing as Cyril, while Miss Glenn Bibb as Ipsi, Miss Ethyl Beazley as Melissa, Miss Nora Moreland as Violet, and the other young ladies presented their roles very acceptably. During the performance Miss Nora Moreland sang a couple of solos with such sweetness that she was applauded to the echo and made the recipient of many beautiful flowers. Just before the final tableau, Miss Jennie Summers sang "He was a Prince," in such a manner as to captivate the audience and cause her admirers to shower flowers upon her. The Stanford Gold Band furnished the music between the acts and surprised even those who had expected much, with the proficiency in which the numbers were rendered. The entertainment was a success in every particular and Miss Summers and the performers deserved the congratulations they received on all sides.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

A divorce was recently granted to a woman in Paris, Texas, and five minutes later she faced the judge with another man and was married.

John Hanson Craig, known as the heaviest man in the world, and Jennie Craig, the snake charmer, museum freaks, were married at Danville, Ind.

The wife of David Lumpkin, a wealthy insurance agent of Memphis, put $5,000 of her husband's money in her blouse pocket and skipped with J. C. Horren, a proof-reader on a daily at that place.

Coleman Waters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Waters, and Miss Sudie Hackney, daughter of Mr. John M. Hackney, were married at the Baptist church Thursday evening just before prayer meeting, by Rev. J. W. Lynch, Advocate.

Mrs. Lingle, of South Charleston, who has just died aged 80 years, did not believe in banks and kept her money around her in various places. Many boxes and cans containing gold and silver.

ver have been found and the relatives of the deceased are at present busy digging up every foot of ground on the premises in their search for money.

—A dispatch from Lancaster says that Mr. and Mrs. James Harvey Yantis celebrated the 60th anniversary of their marriage. This venerable couple are aged respectively 86 and 76. They have 12 living children and are grandparents to 36 grown men and women and are great-grandfathers and mother by 9 other children. They are the oldest couple who have membership in the Lancaster Christian church.

—The Winchester Sun says that Reuben Adams, upon whose silvery locks the snows of 72 winters have fallen and Miles Arkie Osborn, who confesses that she has seen 63 summers and as many springs, winters and falls, were married the other day. And thereby hangs a tale. Over 40 years ago he courted Miss Arkie but the course of true love did not run smooth and Reuben married another woman with whom he lived happily for many years, until the grim reaper came along and left him a disconsolate widower. In the course of time, however, this great sorrow was partially healed; but there remained in his heart a longing for some gentle, tender spirit to preside over his destiny. He bethought himself of his first love, little Arkie, and with fluttering heart and trembling step he sought her out. Little Arkie had remained true to her first love. The old flames were rekindled, the vows of long ago were renewed, and now the twain walk as one down through the evening of life, happy in each other's love, with the blessing of a host of friends showered around them.

A NICE LITTLE JOKE.

But the Extra Baggage Was Too Much For the Chicago Man.

"We had some fun last week," said the drummer to the hotel clerk Saturday night after he had taken his supper and his week's work was done.

"Go on," suggested the clerk encouragingly.

"It was up at a station on the Flint and Pere Marquette railroad, where there is a sawmill and a store or two and timber is plenty. There were three or four of us, one of the party a young Chicago drummer, who was as fresh as Lake Michigan. He was jollifying everybody as we were waiting for a delayed train, and at last he tackled the man who checked the baggage.

"I say," he said to him, with a wink at the rest of us, 'can I get a trunk checked here for Detroit?'

"Certainly, if you've got a ticket," replied the baggage man.

"That's all right. I've got the ticket, but checking the trunk is what bothers me."

"Don't worry about that, mister," said the simple minded baggage man. "I can check any sort of trunk you've got."

"This is such a trunk as I never saw checked," explained the Chicago fresh.

"Bring on your trunk; I'll fix it," insisted the baggage man.

"I'll bet you $5 you won't do it," bluffed the Chicago man.

The baggage man replied by taking out a fiver and putting it in my hands, and Chicago came up smiling and put his there too.

"Wait," he said to the baggage man, with another wink at me, "till I go back to the hotel and get it."

Then he disappeared, and in about 10 minutes he pulled up alongside of the platform with a team of cattle dragging the trunk of a tree about 25 feet long and 2 feet in diameter at its smallest girth.

"Here you are," shouted the Chicago man, with a big laugh of triumph, "bring on your check. This is my trunk."

"I thought, and so did the rest of us, that Chicago had the countryman, and he looked it himself at first, for there was no use talking, he could never get that thing into the car, but he got his second wind in a moment."

"All right," he said, smiling at the drummer. Then to the man with the team, "Haul it over onto them scales, Bill, and weigh it."

"What's that for?" asked the drummer, without a wink to any of us.

"Got to see how much it weighs," said the baggage man quietly. "Lowin you your 150 pounds, I should say there was about 3,000 pounds extra baggage in that trunk, and it'll cost you something over $50 to git it down to Detroit. Hurry up, Bill," he called to the driver, "that train'll be along in 10 minutes."

"But Bill didn't hurry. The Chicago man paid him half a dollar for his trouble, yielded up his V to the green and guileless baggage man, and didn't have anything more to say to anybody."—Detroit Free Press.

So That Settles That.

Le Fiancé—If you wear hoopskirts, Mabel, I won't walk on the same side of the street you do.

Le Fiancé—You won't be able to, dear.—Truth.

An Oversight.

A certain popular lecturer gave evidence of great longevity on one occasion, according to an old lady in a New England town.

At the close of his last lecture in that place, as the audience was leaving the hall, a gentleman remarked that it was a funny slip of the tongue which made the lecturer say that the Pilgrim Fathers reached the bleak New England shores 170 years ago.

"Oh, well," said a little old lady, quick to furnish an excuse for her favorite lecturer, "I dare say it's one of his old lectures, and he forgot to change the date!"—Youth's Companion.

Encouragement.

Strawber—Old man, I'm going to take the fatal step tonight. I propose to Miss Quillenitter.

Singerly—Are you going to do it in that necktie?

Strawber—Why, yes, of course.

Singerly—Then if she says yes, old fellow, you may be sure it is a case of true love.—Clother and Furnisher.

Just the Name.

Clerk—Have you a name for this new flannel?

Manager—Yes, we'll call it boy's flannel.

"Why, that doesn't sound quite right."

"Well, it will when they see how it shrinks from washing."—Chicago Inter Ocean.

The Easter the Beller.

Stuffer—Mr. von Blumer tells me he has given you a new centerpiece for your dining room table.

Mrs. Winter bloom.—Yes. It is a beauty.

Stuffer (gallantly)—I hope I shall have an early opportunity to see it.—Brooklyn Life.

An Easy Settlement.

"The last time I saw Trotter he was deeply in love with two girls. How did he settle the matter?"

"Oh, easily enough—only one would have him."—Vogue.

The promptness and certainty of its cure have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy famous. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping coughs, and is the most effectual remedy known for these diseases. Mr. C. B. Main, of New York, City, has been using it on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I warrant every bottle and have never heard of one failing to give entire satisfaction."—50 cent bottles for sale by W. B. McRoberts, Druggist, Stanford.

There is nothing I have ever used for muscular rheumatism that gives such relief as Chamberlain's Pain Balsam does. I have been using it for about two years, four bottles at a time, as occasion required, and always keep a bottle of it in my home. I believe I know a good thing when I get hold of it, and I can tell the best liniment I ever used with W. B. Penny, druggist, New Lexington, O., to get bottles for sale by W. B. McRoberts, Druggist, Stanford.

While Mr. T. J. Richey, of Alton, Ill., was traveling in Kansas he was taken violently ill with a severe headache. He called at a drugstore to get some medicine and the druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy so highly he concluded to try it. The result was immediate relief and a few doses cured him completely. It is made of bowel complaints and nothing else. It never fails.

For sale by W. B. McRoberts, Druggist, Stanford.

Bucklin's Arnica Salve.

This is the best salve in the world for cuts, braces, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tether, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions and positively cures piles, or any sore requiring a salve. It guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 15 cents per box.

For sale by W. B. McRoberts, Druggist, Stanford.

Guaranteed Cure.

We authorize our druggists to sell you Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. You are afflicted with a Cough, Cold or any Lung, Throat or Chest Trouble and will use this remedy according to directions, giving it a fair trial and experience no benefit, you may return the bottle and get your money back.

To every tired, overworked woman, and to every weak, nervous and ailing one, it is guaranteed to bring health and strength.

It is not in the ordinary way that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription compares to the new discovery. It is a genuine medicine. It is guaranteed. Not with words merely; any medicine can make claims and promises. What is done with the Favorite Prescription is this: if it fails to benefit or cure, in any case, your money is returned. Can you ask any better proof that a medicine will do what it claims?

It's an invigorating, restorative tonic, a soothing and strengthening nervine, and a certain remedy for the ill and almost dying. It's a tonic, I mean, for everyone. It relieves pain, internal inflammation or irritation, bearing down sensations, and all chronic weaknesses and irregularities. It is a positive and complete cure.
